Vrakas Appoints Finley as Chief of Staff

Waukesha, WIS. – County Executive Dan Vrakas announced the appointment of Jenifer Finley as his chief of staff on Tues., Nov. 1.

Vrakas said, “Jenifer Finley is an exceptional choice for this position. She has a Masters degree in administrative leadership and has extensive knowledge about the community.”

Finley, an Okauchee resident, has professional experience in healthcare marketing and human service agency management. In addition, she is an adjunct faculty member at Carroll College in Waukesha.

Finley is actively involved with numerous professional and civic organizations. She is currently the president-elect for the Crohn’s and Colitis Foundation Board of Directors and has served on the boards for these agencies: Sally Ride Academy, Salvation Army, United Way in Washington County and Waukesha Kiwanis Early Risers Club.

“Jenifer will be a great asset to the County Executive’s Office,” said Vrakas. “Her strong communication skills and understanding of county government operations will be invaluable to this administration as we move forward to accomplish our goals of controlling taxes, providing quality services and improving efficiencies.”

Finley said, “I am honored to have been asked to serve County Executive Dan Vrakas in this capacity, and I look forward to guiding the initiatives and priorities set forth by his administration.”

Vrakas was elected by county citizens on Mon., Oct. 18 during a special election. He took oath of office on Mon., Oct. 31 at 4 p.m.
